Mags is sure she will suffocate on loneliness when her friends head off to college. They get new adventures while she gets to live in the same house, on the same street, in the same city she's been in forever.

When the hottest guy at a party hits on her, she's convinced her world has shifted, that between fashion school and the start of a relationship, she too will have a chance at a new life.

She's right.

Everything changes that night.

Just not in the way she dreamed.
